The Art of the Successful Business Meeting

There's a certain art to any successful business meeting. After all, it takes a lot more than simply bringing people together. It takes a special location, a unique atmosphere that fosters inspiration and a certain creative spark - the kind that you usually can't find in the everyday hustle and bustle of the office.

At The Porches Inn at MASS MoCA we know all about art and inspiration. That's what happens when you're located directly across the street from one of the most famous museums of contemporary art in the world. More important, we know all about how to turn your next business gathering into a work of art. Whether it's a cozy, functional space for that important brainstorming session, board meeting or retreat, it's for a day or a few days, or it's indoors or outdoors, we can make sure your next event is spot on.

All About Porches

Here at Porches we specialize in smaller, more intimate meetings and gatherings. Our 47-room Inn offers two unique meeting and event spaces, and several outdoor venues that will serve to open your mind and stir the imagination. We offer state-of-the-industry hotel amenities ranging from high speed WiFi to a full line of AV equipment, complimentary Continental breakfasts, a year-round outdoor heated swimming pool with hot tub and a full service fitness center and sauna.

And the surrounding area provides plenty of cultural activities that will help to inspire your team. From cutting-edge contemporary art to theater and music, the neighborhood has plenty to offer. What's more, Porches is located in the heart of the northern Berkshires - near Mount Greylock - the highest peak in Massachusetts. This outdoor lovers paradise features mountains to hike, incredible rivers to fish in or raft on, bike paths to pedal, and broad swaths of fields to explore in your free time.

We're easy to get to as well. Our location, on Route 2, near the end of the Mohawk Trail, puts us just two hours from Harvard Square, and just over three hours from Union Square. If flying is your preferred method of travel, check out the Albany International Airport. It's barely an hour away.

Meet Us @ Porches

We're all about style and function at Porches. Rooms filled with contemporary art, old fashioned blackboards and lots and lots of natural light, combine to create an experience that's both inspiring and productive. Each of our private meeting rooms offers wireless Internet connectivity, flexible meeting/function space and stylish furnishings, with capacities from 30 to 50. And with our wide array of business amenities and a staff that can anticipate your needs before you do, we can offer many of the same advantages as a much larger, business-friendly hotel - but in a far more intimate setting.

Meeting & Event Settings - Indoors

Building 7

Located just behind the Reception Building, and overlooking our pool, this former schoolhouse is a hodgepodge of contemporary art and furnishings set against a natural wooden backdrop. The spacious room is topped by a twenty-foot ceiling - very conducive to the lofty results you're shooting for. It features a full state-of-the-art media system. Perfect for everything from meetings and banquets to parties.

Capacity 50 480 Square Feet

The Board Room

Located in the Reception Building, The Board Room features old-fashioned blackboard walls and cozy conference facilities. It's an ideal space for smaller meetings, private luncheons, breakout sessions, banquets and dinner.

Capacity 30 323 Square Feet

The Breakfast Room

Also located in the Reception Building, The Breakfast Room offers a spacious location adjacent to the front porch and filled with natural light. In addition to being home to our complimentary Continental breakfast, The Breakfast Room is suitable for banquets, private luncheons and breakout space.

Capacity 36 374 Square Feet

Meeting & Event Settings - The Great Outdoors

The Wedding Glen

Situated at the top of the hill behind Porches, this outdoor deck is located in the midst of our native woodland garden. And while this favorite spot may have the word "Wedding" in its name, it's also a picturesque alternative for a meeting space, breakout session or team-building activity.

Woodland Gazebo

A nifty little "clubhouse" that we built at the top of our woodland garden, and wired for electricity and WiFi, this is the perfect spot for that party in the woods you've always wanted to throw! Also great for smaller executive retreats.

The Fire Pit

Ready to have a free-spirited think tank? Unwind before or after business? Spend a quiet afternoon in contemplation? Or a romantic evening with your spouse? Maybe you're just in the mood to sit around a bonfire and swap campfire stories? The bonfire pit is the perfect place to do all that and more. We'll even get the fire started so all you have to do is relax.

Catering & Event Planning

Porches works with a number of caterers and event planners in the Berkshire region to provide space design and food and refreshment for your next meeting. There are a variety of cuisines to fit any event and theme. We can also handle arrangements for dining out at one of the many popular dining spots in the area. To discuss our preferred vendor list, please contact our sales department.
